

Missouri Wine 2021 Bucket List

- Take a wine trail adventure – Did you know there are 11 wine trails across the state?
- Capture the perfect selfie – There's no better background than breathtaking views of valleys and rivers in Missouri wine country! Be sure to use #MOWines and #MOWineBucketList when posting.
- Listen LIVE and discover a new band – Many Missouri wineries feature live music throughout the year.
- Unwind with Yoga – Enjoy yoga in the vineyard at several wineries across the Show-Me State. Watch our calendar for upcoming yoga events, and definitely don't miss goat yoga!
- Stay a while – There are 21 wineries that have on-site lodging for you, your friends and family. Or spend the night gazing at the stars with a glass of wine while enjoying the camping accommodations at these Missouri wineries.
- Go behind-the-scenes – 49 wineries across the state offer tours of their facilities. Immerse yourself in a winemaking weekend at a wine country harvest festival.
- Get scared – Interested in ghosts and haunted places? Then you definitely need to plan a trip to these haunted Missouri wineries.
- Take a break from hosting holiday events – Find Valentine's Day events, Mother's Day outings and even fireworks on Independence Day at Missouri wineries. Get special event notifications by signing up for our newsletter!
- Change someone's mind on wine – Introduce a friend to a Missouri varietal that will have them saying, "MO wine please!"
- Go virtual – A wine tasting experience in the comfort of your own home? Sweet! If you're in the St. Louis area, give this one a try.

As you're out and about checking items off your bucket list, get rewarded for your visits!

Become a Missouri Wine MVP member today!