

Things to know about NORTON

Also known as:
Cynthiana

Vitis aestivalis
*Native American
Grape*

often used in
Dry & Dessert Wines

Norton
accounts for 17.7% of all
grapes
grown in Missouri

BIG BOLD
RED

There are 300.5
bearing acres of Norton in Missouri

The official
state grape
of Missouri

Tastes
All-American
with dark fruit and spicy oak flavors

Pairings:
smoked meat
wild game
BBQ
lamb
tomatoes

smells like
*dark berries
and light spices*

spice cake
dark chocolate
black cherries
blue cheese

looks like dark ink

MISSOURI WINES™