

St. James

While St. James, Missouri, may seem like a small town, there are plenty of things to see and do, especially if you enjoy the great outdoors.

Hike or bike along the town's many trails including Forest City Bike Trail and St. James Park. If you're looking to have a relaxing picnic, pitch a tent, fire up the grill or spend the day fishing all while snapping beautiful photos, Maramec Spring Park is a must. History buffs will enjoy visiting the Maramec Museum of Natural and Cultural History and the Ozark Agriculture Museum.

St. James houses many antique stores perfect for grabbing a keepsake to commemorate your trip or a gift for a friend. The local wineries also have unique items in their gift shops.

Whether you're visiting for the day or staying the whole weekend, you've got to stop and eat. Enjoy locally-sourced food at Just a Taste, fine dining at Sybill's, brick oven-style pizza at Public House Brewing Company or grab a bite at Meramec Vineyards Winery Bistro. Satisfy your sweet tooth at Fanning 66 Outpost (8 miles away in Cuba, MO), home to the World's Largest Rocking Chair on Historic Route 66. Try their homemade kettle fudge and choose from over 80 flavors of gourmet popcorn.

Explore Missouri wine country and visit one of five wineries in the area.

Heinrichshaus Vineyard and Winery has been owned by Heinrich Grohe for over 20 years. He has been inviting customers to come and discover the hidden serenity located in St. James.

Eagle's Landing is located within Just A Taste, a wine cellar and restaurant in downtown St. James. It focuses on bringing the past and present together by combining science and art.

Meramec Vineyards Winery is a four year dream turned reality by St. James locals Joe and Michelle Boulware. Their mission is to carry on the tradition of fine, small batched wines and to capture the gift of time and quality with every bottle.

Spencer Manor Winery is a new, family-owned winery in St. James. Their tasting room, with beautiful scenery and unique wine caves, is coming fall of 2021. For now, you can purchase the first release of wine on their website and pick up at the winery.

St. James Winery recently celebrated its 50th anniversary. This family-owned, internationally awarded winery offers customers 45 different wine varieties to choose from, ensuring there is something for every palate.

We hope we've inspired you to consider St. James, MO, for your next excursion through Missouri wine country. For a full list of things to explore in this quaint town, click here.